Exciting News! Girls can join Cub Scouting!

Now the entire family can join the adventure!

Boys, Girls or Both?

It's the Chartered Organization's Choice.

An existing chartered organization may choose to serve girls or remain an all-boy pack. When creating a new pack, a chartered organization may form an all-boy pack, an all-girl pack or a pack with separate dens for girls and boys.

- Allows organizations to identify the options that work best for their communities
- Allows flexibility for chartered partners
- Introduces Scouting to more families

SCOUTS BSA

Why Scouts BSA?

It's important for all youth to see themselves in Scouting.

Initially, significant work was done to arrive at a separate name for the program that would serve older girls.

As work continued, it became clear that having two names for the same program would cause confusion and fuel a misconception that the programs were somehow different.

Since all single-gender troops would run the same Scouting program, earn the same merit badges, and achieve the same ranks, the best choice is to have one program name.

Scouts BSA builds on our legacy –
Scout meetings, the Scout handbook,
Scout camp, even Scouts themselves.

It's the same iconic program, with a name that welcomes young men and women to the adventure of Scouting.
